BRIGHTON TO BE "RECOGNIZED" BY THE JOCKEY CLUB.

Popular Track to Be Admitted to the Charmed Circle With Gravesend, Belmont Park and the Bay-Fine Starting by Dade-Books Get Better Break.

According to the current issue of the Racing Catendar, the official paper of the Jockey Club, the Brighton Beach Racing Association will soon be elevated to the front ran smong the recognized tracks under Jockey Club rule. Hitherto the Jockey Club has consisted of three recognized racing associations— the Coney Island Jockey Club of Sheepshead Bay, the Brooklyn Jockey Club of Gravesend and the Westchester Racing Association of Belmont Park. F. R. Hitchcock has offered an amendment to the rules which admits the Brighton track within this charmed circle and the matter will come up for a vote on August 9. A recognized track, according to the Jockey Club rules, is one that does not have to apply for a license. The Jamaica, Aqueduct, Saratoga, Buffalo and Brighton tracks in the past have always been subsidiary in that they have been compelled to apply to the Jockey Club for licenses and dates. Brighton has grown so rapidly in point of business and popularity and has made such a liberal output as to stakes and purse that it is understood the Jockey Club has practically decided to accord the recognition that the Beach track apparently richly de-serves. In making this addition to the rules Mr. Hitchcock has been moved by a spirit of which the Brighton management will probably acknowledge with still further efforts to raise the sport at the Beach to the high standard of quality which prevails at Gravesend, Belmont Park and the Bay. The Brighton management has spent thousands of dollars in improvements and has gradually increased the value of stakes until some of the richest on the turi horses taking part in the various Brighton stakes has been vastly improved, so that this year the best racing in the history of the track is now going on.

The work of Starter Dade yesterday was about the best he has shown since he made his bow at the Beach a week ago to-day. His with bad actors has worked won-When he got up on the rail opposite the field stand to send the horses away in the third race, at a mile and a sixteenth, it was raining steadily, yet hundreds stood near the fence to see the start. No more exacting patrons of racing can be found outside of the field enclosure, and when Dade let the horses go to a superb break the crowd roke into cheers and many cried out: "Take off your hat!"

This is the second time such a remarkable demonstration in recognition of Dade's good work has occurred and it shows that the new starter has made great strides in the estimation of the public. Dade, by the way, has an able assistant in Elmer Wilson, who was released by Mars Cassidy. Wilson is an expert at schooling horses to the barrier and has actually succeeded in subduing such a mean actor as Diamond. Wilson had hold of Thomond, a high kicker, in the last race thing in the race and Wilson was dragged about almost at will. The jockeys were so afraid of his heels that they huddled their mounts together near the fences.
"I'm afraid you are going to be left with that horse!" said Dade to Wilson, who quickly "Pay no attention to me, Mr. Bade! I'll get him away when you say the word!" A moment later Dade raised the gate and Wilson swung Thomond around just in the nick of time to have him break quickly with the others. As the days pass, the public's confidence in the flat footed start becomes more manifest. It is almost impossible now to find an advocate of the walk up system among the trainers who were advocating it earlier in the season, for all of the horses are getting the squarest kind of a deal at the barrier. Furthermore, Dade is not leaving any favorites at the post. He sees to it that they are straight and ready when the gate goes up and because of that fact he is making a daily hit with the crowd. When Dade was starting at Buffalo he followed this policy to such an extent that the bookmakers were praying for his departure for Salem, N. H. the standing start in vogue it impossible to leave a well schooled horse at the post. Dade can wait longer for a perfect alignment than any starter that has preceded His coolness and deliberation are the principal reasons for his success and his control of the riders is also an important trainer to THE SUN man yesterday, "but Dade is more cool headed. He never grows impatient and does not throw the gate until every horse has his nose to the ribbon. He is aided by the barrier, under which it is absolutely impossible for a horse to duck!" The bookmakers received a better break yesterday than on Monday. Beginning with the first race they were well scorched when Clements won, as this colt was played heavily straight and place. Mintberia and Orphan Lad were also played across the boards, but a lot of money was dropped on Black Mate, who was backed from 4 to 1 down to 13 to 5.

"Fitzgerald was a great starter," said a

There was no betting to speak of on the second race as few cared to back Kiamesha at 1 to 5 while there was no place betting against Bryan, the second choice. Billy Garth, who has just arrived with a chifty stable, served up a hot good thing in the third race in Hyperion. This horse was backed liberally at 5 to 1, while Azelina, who ran in the place, was taken three ways. The books, however, won to this race, as Sir Caruthers and Champlain burned up a good sized bundle. Then came Sir Huon at 1 to 3 in the stake race, the sure thing plungers picking up what they usually call supper money. The money paid out on Sir Huor was balanced by the support accorded Gallavant straight and place. But Albert F. was well played place and show, while Jame B. Brady's Maxie Witt carried plenty of third

Nearly all the books laid against Vor Tromp in the fifth, but they got a scorchin when Far West won, as he was backed down a point to 2. Sailor Boy, the second horse, was supported three ways at 8, 2½ and even, but Blandy was a life saver, as he was backed straight and place by many big players, especially in the clubhouse. A mild killing was pulled off in the sixth with Killaloe, who opened at 10 and was reduced to 6. This was a profitable race for the chalkers, however, as Rosemount, Pierrot and Judge Post were all well supported at 5 to 2, none of them getting a part of the purse. Sam Doggett did not bet on his colt Dominator, who took the place at 60, 20 and 10. Dunvalle, tre third horse, was also neglected at 20.

While the ring cleaned up a large amount on the defeat of Janeta in the last, Tyron's success cost many layers a bunch. He was played extensively all over the ring at 10 to 1. Reidmoore carried a characteristic Shields wager across the boards, while there was plenty of show betting on Novena at 2. "I have seen many hard times for the books," said a well posted operator after the races, "but this year has beaten all pre-vious records. The books have been up against it all season and lately some of them have lost their lives. If the present run of ill luck continues you will see only the fellows with the big bank rolls in line after the meeting at the Beach. The horses are running strictly to form and there seems to be no letup in sight. The books are playing a waiting game, but some of them can't stand the gaff much longer."

Clements has changed hands as the result Clements has changed hands as the result of bid ups in selling races more than any other horse in training. He was first taken away from H. T. Griffin by H. Gardner, who lost him the other day to Bob Tucker. He was entered in the first race yesterday to be sold for $1,000 and Mike Ctancy promptly ran him up to $1,600 and got him at that figure. Hyperion, who was entered in the third race for $900, was bid up to $1,505.

Miller after riding Clements to victory proceeded to disappoint his followers, as he was unplaced with Sir Caruthers and Gallawant. He took second money with Salior Boy at liberal odds, however, which was his last mount of the day.

SIR HUON WINS THE SEA GATE. Falsette Celt Romps Home in the Mud the Beach.

Four favorites in seven races were defeated at Brighton Beach yesterday. Just before the first event was run a heavy thunderstorm broke and the rain, falling steadily nearly all the afternoon, turned the track into heavy going. G. J. Long's Sir Huon, 1 to 3 favorite, scored a hollow yictory in the Sea Gate Stakes for three year. victory in the Sea Gate Stakes for three-year-olds, one mile and a furiong. Troxier held him in check until three-quarters of a mile him in check until three-quarters of a mile had been covered, when he sent him to the front, the Falsetto colt winning in a galiop by two lengths in 1:54. P. J. Dwyer's Albert F., 15 to 1, who led for nearly a mile, beat James B. Brady's Maxie Witt, 20 to 1, a half second choice, propped himself at the start, Miller for some reason took him up and made no further attempt to overhaul his rivals. Far West, 2 to 1 second choice, made all the pace in the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth and won by a length from Bill Daly's Sailor Boy, 8 to 1, the latter having three parts of a length over August Belmont three parts of a length over August Belmont's Blandy, 4 to 1, who virtually broke down at the head of the stretch when he looked to have a royal chance to win. James R. Keene's Von Tromp, top weight and receding favorite, could not untrack himself and was never a factor. The race was run in 1:47 3-5.

The second race, at six furlongs, was nothing but a gallop for the Oneck Stable's Kishehsha, 1 to 5 favorite, who led always and won, eased up, by a length and a half in 1:14 3-5. Bryan, second choice, was the runner-up and beat Corn Bloasom, 30 to 1, by three lengths.

Clements, 5 to 2 favorite, Miller up, made the pace in the first race, for two-year-olds, at six furlongs, and came home an easy winner by a length, with J. E. Madden's Mintberia, 10 to 1, taking the place from Orphan Lad, 9 to 2, by two lengths. The race was run in 1:14 4-5.

Trainer W. Garth put Hyperion, 5 to 1.

beria, 10 to 1, taking the place from Orphan Lad, 0 to 2, by two lengths. The race was run in 1:14 4-5.

Trainer W. Garth put Hyperion, 5 to 1, over the plate in the third event, at a mile and a sixteenth. The horse got a fine ride from Bell, who waited with him until near the far turn, where he rushed to the front and then breezed home an easy winner by two lengths over Azelina, 5 to 1. Edith James, 10 to 1, nosed Sir Caruthers, 12 to 5 favorite, out of the money. Champlain burned up a lot of good money. The time was 1:47.

A successful coup was put through in the sixth race, for maiden two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, with H. P. Whitney's Killaloe, backed down from 10 to 6. Koerner put up a great finish, the Kilmarnock filly winning by a neck from Sam Doggett's Dominator, a 60 to 1 shot. Dunvallo, 20 to 1, was third, beating August Belmont's Rosemount, who dosed an equal favorite with Judge Post and Keene's Pierrot at 5 to 2. Rosemount looked dangerous at the turn, but she stopped when the crisis came. Killaloe was always prominent. The race was run in 1:08 2-5.

Janeta, 8 to 5 favorite, after threatening to do something for three-quarters of a mile, was badly beaten in the last race, at a mile and a sixteenth. Tyron, 10 to 1, ran away from the others at the turn and galloped home eight lengths in front of Willie Shields's Reidmore, 5 to 1, who got up in time to beat W. A. Chandler's Novena, 12 to 1, a half a length for the place. Robador, second choice, was nowhere. The time was 1:48 3-5. The attendance was more than 12,000. The

ROY A. RAINEY'S SCHOONER FIRST AT NEW LONDON.

Lasca, With Her Time Allowance, Takes Racing Honors in First Division-Little Phyrne Wins Special Time Prize-Nice Breeze for the Combined Club's Cruise.

New London, July 17.—Fine weather is favoring the yachts of the combined fleet and the forty mile run from Morris Cove was made to-day in fast time. The racers was made to-day in fast time. The rabled had a nice southerly wind which enabled them to carry balloon jib topsalis all the way into the finish spinnakers were used. Roy A. Raisey's big schooner Invader led the fleet across the line at the finish. She started at 8:30 o'clock and finished at 1:22:15, having made the forty nautical miles in 4 hours, 55 minutes, 15 seconds. This is an average of 8.2 miles an hour. The Invader was the largest yacht in the fleet and in her division had to allow time to the Lasca and Savanna-and this she failed to do. The Lasca again showed that she is fast off the wind in light wind and won the race by 1 minute, 59 seconds In the next division matters are rather ndefinite. The yachtsmen are required to file measurement certificate before starting and of the seven that raced only three have done this. These are the Quickstep, Andromeda and Vigil, The Andromeda, however, made the mistake of starting at the wrong side of the committee boat and for this may be ruled out of the race, which will give it to the Vigil, a yacht that rates only 44.16. She is owned by A. H. Chandler, the Philadelphia banker, who has recently become interested in ballooning and who made a trip from Philadelphia to South Amboy not long ago.

In the next division were the sloops Effort and Irolite, and the Effort had to allow 5 minutes 25 seconds to the Irolite over the course This she succeeded in doing and had a minute and a half to spare at the end. In the division for yawls of the six that started only two have been measured, the Selvada and Lotawana. The Selvada led at the finish, but lost on time allowance and the Lotawana won the race. In the last division all the sloops 48 feet and under were bunched. This brought together Pellegrina, Vivian, Athlon and Phryne, winners in their respective classes; and the Phryne, a New York Yacht Club one design 30 footer won with lots to spare. These divisions were arranged by the regatta com-mittee to give yachts that had no class competitor a chance to win a prize, and in addition to the class and division prizes, there was special prize for the yacht making the best orrected time over the course. The biggest boat, the Lasca, had to allow lots of time to all the others, and the Phryne, owned by C. W. Wetmore, won the race by a good nargin. The following table gives the lowance, rating under the mixed rule and the

| Plapsed Cav'cted | Plapsed Cav'cted | Plate | Plansed Cav'cted | Plansed | The Sue won this race on the first day, the Phryne to-day. The conditions were all in favor of the small boats. The wind just suited these, while the larger yachts wanted more wind and wanted it ahead. The small yachts are doing just as they did in the New York Yacht, Club cruise last year, and the ques-tion has been raised whether the allowance is not too large. Commodore D. G. Reid of the Atlantic Yacht Club was in command of the allied fleets for the day and he ordered the yachts to proceed to New London at 7 o'clock in the morning. Preparations were made at once and at 8 o'clock the regatta committee had made the line off the eastern breakwater and sent the small sloops away. In the original printed instructions the western breakwater was named as the starting point. This was a mistake and Chairman Wells of the regatta committee visited each yacht long before the start was made and told each owner of the change. In spite of this and the fact that the committee's tug had made the line off the eastern breakwater, some of the yachtsmen went wrong and the result was some confusion at the start.

It had been arranged, too, to send the small yachts off first. This should have given them an opportunity to start unhampered and left the line clear when the turn of the larger boats came. The schooner Eclipse sailed on the line-just as the small sloops were starting and in trying to get out of the way fouled the Vivian II. and Regina, handicapping them Commedore D. G. Reid of the Atlantic the line clear when the turn of the larger boats came. The schooner Eclipse sailed on the line-just as the small sloops were starting and in trying to get out of the way fouled the Vivian II., and Regina, handicapping them several minutes. Fortunately the wind was very light at the time or considerable damage would have been done. As it was there was some lively hustling to get the yachts clear and a few uncomplimentary things were said. As the yawls were starting the schooner Fenila got in the way of the Raledin. The schooner had no business on the line and the yawl suffered. The Queen, J. Rogers Maxwell's new schooner, withdrew from the fleet at Morris Cove and sailed back to Glen Cove. She will be prepared for the races at Larchmont next Saturday, when she will meet the Corona and the Elmina.

The yachts crossed the line on the starboard tack in a light southerly wind. The Tabasco and Phryne led the small schooner class, the order was Clarissa, Eclipse, loyal, Vigil, Quickstep and Fenella. The Irolita was just ahead of the Effort and these two had a smart luffing match. The Lasca, with R. P. Doremus at the wheel, led the schooners followed by Savarona and Invader. As the Intrepid passed the committee boat, but these were not racing.

The course was 11½ miles east southeast to Faulkner's Island and the leaders were off that point at 10:50 o'clock. Then it was 25 miles east to Bartlet's Reef Lightship, leaving Cornfield and Bartlet's Reef light vessels on the port hand and from there it was three miles east northeast to the finishing line off the bell buvo on Syrah's Ledge.

The course was the northeast to the finishing line off the bell buvo on Syrah's Ledge.

The was then off Cornfield lightship. The wind had freshened very much and the tide was running east. Them the Invader gradually overhauled the leaders, and when off Bartlet's reef shortly before 10 o'clock, went to the front. From Bartlet's Reef to the finish spinnakers were carried. The Hildegarde made a fine showing. She led the invader by 12 minutes

NEW YORK HORSES WIN.

Capture More Than Haif the Blues on Opening Day at Atlantic City Show. ATLANTIC CITY, July 17.—Heavy showers marred the opening of the eighth annual Atlantic City horse show at Inlet Park this afternoon. The first downpour came during a harness event late in the afternoon and stopped the show, while teams, judges and spectators made for shelter. The sky cleared later, but another smart shower sent most of the gallery sprinting for home just before the last event The show is fully up to the average and promises interest to the followers of the ring horse. C. W. Watson of Baltimore is here with a good string and is backing his English hack, Ringing Bells, brought over by George Watson of New York, to beat Mrs. Gerken's Newsboy and other winners in champio events later in the week.

The Vanderbilt four, Gibson Girl and Middleown Belle, leaders, and Venture and Vallant, wheelers, are being worked here in prepara-tion for the road race at Long Branch won by the same team last year. Mr. Vanderbilt will come down in his private car with a party of friends and will tool the coach to-morrow The only accident of the day occurred in the open class for harness enimals. Rustling Silk, a Vanderbilt entry kicked at a fly on a turn and slipped, falling headlong. The groom caught the animal before it could get up and it was not injured. John T. Morgana bay hunter, entered by Mrs. Dorothy Henderson, refused a low fence jump in competition, and bolted for the ring fence, taking the five foot entrance gate without injury.

More than half the blues went to New York entries, Mrs. Gerken leading with three, in harness classes, others going to entries of George Watson, W. S. HARD FALL FOR LITTLE.

Dewhurst Puts Him Out in Seabright Tennis Singles.

There was plenty of rain at Seabright in the early afternoon yesterday, but the sandy soil under the turf lawn tennis courts soaked it all up and as a result, when there was a letup, the tennis players were able to go on. In the "lose and quit" singles there was a great deal of interest in the match between Edward B. Dewhurst, the former Pennsylvania State and intercollegiate cham-pion, and Raymond D. Little, captain of the Davis Cup team abroad, whose playing against H. L. Doherty in the international tie caused a sensation. Little was put out in the all-England championships in the semi-final in the fifth round by Riseley, the eventual winner of the tournament. His playing was so good on the other side that there was hearty curiosity to see him yesterday. Unfortunately the rain kept away most of the

TOO STRONG FOR CHAMPIONS.

CUBS THEIR MASTERS IN FIRST GAME OF SERIES.

Leaders Widen the Gap Between Themselves and New Yorks to 68 Points-Brooklyns Lose in St. Louis-Cincinnatis and Quakers Defeat Their Opponents. The first game of the present important series between the New York Nationals and Chicagos, played yesterday, was a decided setback for the champions. The reenforce-ments which helped to take four straight from the St. Louis team were not of sufficient assistance to prevent the leaders from win-ning handly. The Chicagos increased their lead to 65 points and are playing a danger-ously consistent game. However, there is some hope in the fact that the champions lost their first game in Chicago on the previous trip and won the next three. The Pittsburgs caught a tartar in the Philadelphias and lost, and the Brooklyns were maitreated by the Cardinals. The results: Chicago, 6: New York, 2.

han struck out and Strang grounded to Chance.

In the fifth, with one out, Gilbert was passed, Matty grounded out and Bresnahan smote hard, tying up the score. For a moment the New York rooters in the crowd were vocal, but the New York's downfall was at hand. In the sixth, with the down, Chance drew a pass and Steinfeidt fanned. Tinker drove one whizzing through centre and made the full circuit, while the public went mad with joy. New York was staggered, and still more so in the seventh. This inning was horrible. Matty walked Sheckard, Gilbert made a bad fumble with two out and Dahlen threw over Bresnahan's head when the locals were trying a double steal. Two runs ensued.

the locals were trying a double steal. Two runs ensued.

Seymour laced out a long swat in the eighth and refused to stop running. Everybody threw wide and Cy came all the way around in the confusion. This seemed to worry the local bunch and they proceeded to score one on a force, a wild pitch and a swat by Slagle. New York effected nothing in the ninth.

During the seventh Bresnahan, chasing a foul into the crowd, stepped on a man's face, badly injuring the man's countenance. When the doctors came it was found that the victim, and of the content of the co

The St. Louis despatch was shown Fred Tenney.

"Not a chance in the world," said Tenney.

"We are in the business to build up our team, and not pull it down. Under no circumstances would we part with Young. Of course, I am speaking on my own responsibility, but I am sure the club owners will agree with me. As yet I have heard nothing official of the efforts of New York to get Cy, but I certainly shall veto any proposition of the kind that comes up.

Detroits Down Tailenders in Only Game Played-Rain Elsewhere.

No games were played in New York, Philadelphia or Washington yesterday, rain send-ing the ball teams to cover. In Boston the Detroits were favored by the elements and did the expected to the Bostons, who have lost twelve out of their last fourteen games. The New Yorks have a tough job ahead of them to regain first place before the end of the week or even to hold second place. They other while the Philadelphias have what looks to be a somewhat easier opponent in St. Louis. If St. Louis has any surprises in store for Philadelphia they will be welcome.
